THERE IS A FUTURE IN

TEXTILES

The world's aldest manufacturing industry — textiles—is todoy one af aur most exciting and challenging industries, praducing revolutionary textile praducts with qualities which men have sought far centuries. Man-made fibers, new products of the chemist's test-tube, have been o mojor contributor to this textile pragress.

A small textile producer in 1923, Burlingtan Mills believed in the future of rayon—an early man-made fiber. In the past 28 yeors Burlingtan has became a leader in the development and praduction af beautiful, durable and high-quality filament, spun and knit synthetic fobrics. Fram ane plant with appraximately 200 emplayees, our Compony has grown to include 73 monufacturing plants in 43 communities of eight states and four fareign cauntries. Employing 34,000 people, Burlingtan is today the world's largest praducer of synthetic fabrics, and it is a recagnized leader in the designing, development, research, merchandising and fashion fields as well as manufacturing.

If you are a young man or woman laaking for a place in industry, we think you shauld consider textiles—and Burlington. It can hold a bright future for the person with the willingness to learn, ability to work, and the natural interest in this fascinating and competitive field.

HO! FOR CAROLINA

"All her guls are charming, graceful too and gay,
Hoppy as the blue birds in the month of Moy;
And they steel your hearts, too, by their mogic pow'rs,
Oh! there are no girls on eorth that can compore with ours"

Lu Long Ogburn, groduote of the class of 1950, won the title of "Miss North Carolino" on July 21, 1951 of the "Miss North Carolino" Beouty Pogeont held in Burlington, N. C. This honor gove her the right to represent her stote in the "Miss Americo" Pageont held in Atlantic City during the week of Sept. 3-8. From Atlantic City Lu Long brought home four trophies: for swim suit, flaot, tolent, and second panel up to the title of "Miss Americo." She also received o $2,500 scholarship oward. Lu Long holds the distinction of being the only "Miss North Carplina" who ever become second runner-up to the coveted title of "Miss America" in the Notional Pageont at Atlantic City.

I AM MUSIC

VOICE OF THE UNIVERSE; Priestess of Earth, Life's Lyric of Love, am I. Song of angels in the house of good; the snare and delusion of hell.

I whisper of passion; I breathe romance; I am the inspiration for work and play. Though I am a balm of peace, yet on the battlefields I stir men's hearts and urge them on to greater deeds of valor. I dwell in the peaceful chambers of content, but I am present always in the pits of war. I lead true lovers to the altar, I muse by the cradle, I stalk by the open grave. I am the incense upon which devout prayers rise heavenward. Know me, and I will comfort you always.

If my song be in your heart you will hear my voice in the babble of the brook, the chant of birds; the rustle of the leaves, and the billows of the sea. The wind and the rain and the flowers and the dew all speak to you of me. The rumble of traffic, the clatter of hoofs, the hum of the motor, the song of the mill; ah! I charge the very air. Down through the ages I have walked with men yet none have ever fathomed me. With the prince and the beggar I roam the earth and all men love me. For I am the spirit of the very best that is in them, and they praise and strive for the best that is within me. I am the soul of the arts. I am Music.

... Robert L. Shepherd
